L'apostolo San Matteo, testimone oculare dell'Ascensione del Signore, ci rivela, negli ultimi due versetti del suo Vangelo, la richiesta di Gesù: battezzate ogni uomo nel nome della Santissima Trinità. Quest'ordine del Signore ci mostra chiaramente tre cose: (1) Il battesimo adesso sostituisce la circoncisione quale segno dell'appartenenza alla famiglia di Dio. (2) La missione dei discepoli è di annunciare il Vangelo e (3) la Salvezza è d'ora in poi per tutti.

El apóstol Mateo como testigo ocular de la Ascensión del Señor, nos revela en sus dos últimos versículos de su Evangelio, el deseo de Jesús: Bautizar a todos en el nombre de la Santísima Trinidad. Este mandato del Señor revela claramente tres cosas: (1) El Bautismo reemplaza ahora a la circuncisión como signo de nuestra incorporación dentro de la familia de Dios. (2) Los discípulos tienen la misión de anunciar el Evangelio. (3) Y que La Salvación es ahora, universal.

The apostle Matthew, as an eyewitness to the Ascension of the Lord, reveals to us in the last two verses of his Gospel, the desire of Jesus: Baptize everyone in the name of the Holy Trinity. This command of the Lord clearly reveals three things: (1) Baptism now replaces circumcision as a sign of our incorporation into the family of God. (2) The disciples have the mission of announcing the Gospel and (3) Salvation is now, universal.

Pope Francis' Message, part 1

Pope Francis celebrated the 100th anniversary of the birth of St John Paul II by offering Holy Mass May 17 at the altar where the Polish Pope is buried in St Peter's Basilica. Joined by a very limited number of the faithful, the liturgy on Monday morning was the first Mass open to the public after almost two months of restrictions due to the coronavirus pandemic. The Holy Father said: "The Lord loves his people" (Ps . 149,4... The people of Israel repeated: "The Lord loves his people." In bad times, always "the Lord loves"; one has to wait for how this love will manifest. Then the Lord sent for this love by a prophet of God, the reaction of the people was: "The Lord has visited his people " (cf. Ex 4:31), because he loves them, he has visited them... The crowd that followed Jesus seeing the things Jesus did, said: "The Lord has visited his people" (cf. Lk 7:16). Today we can say here: a hundred years ago the Lord visited his people. He sent a man, prepared him to be a bishop and to lead the Church. Recalling St. John Paul II we say: "The Lord loves his people", "the Lord has visited his people"; He sent a pastor. And what are the "traces" of a good shepherd that we can find in St. John Paul II? So many! But let's just say three...: prayer, closeness to the people, love of justice. St. John Paul II was a man of God because he prayed , and prayed a lot. But how come a man who has so much to do, (next pg.)

Living the Gospel by supporting the Deaf community ...

Imagine you're a Deaf child and your parents don't know sign language. Your parents could gesture in a rudimentary way, but how do you share your joys, fears and needs? Silent Voice, a ShareLife agency, teaches American Sign Language and Deaf culture to families so they can share a common language. "I'm so passionate about Silent Voice," says one grateful parent, "because their Family Communication Program rescues children from social isolation." Last year more than 700 Deaf people and their family members received help through Silent Voice.

Please give generously to ShareLife. Thank you!

Vocation Corner

Jesus said, "Remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." If God is calling you to serve him as a Franciscan Capuchin priest or brother, please call Br. Louis 1-226-881-0065. If you feel called to be a diocesan priest, deacon, brother or sister, please call Fr. Chris at 416-968-0997.

so much work to guide the Church..., has so much prayer time? He knew well that the first task of a bishop is to pray... he said San Pietro, when they made deacons, said: "And we bishops, pray and preach the Word" (cf. Acts 6.4). "The first task of a bishop is to pray, and he knew it, he did it. Model of bishop who prays... & he taught us that when a bishop does an examination of conscience in the evening he must ask himself: how many hours have I prayed today? Secondly, he was a man of closeness. He was not a man detached from the people, on the contrary he went to find the people; and he traveled the whole world, finding his people, looking for his people, getting close. And closeness is one of the traits of God with his people. Recall that the Lord says to the people of Israel: "Look, what people have had their gods as close as I am with you?" (cf. Dt 4,7). A closeness of God ...in Jesus, he becomes stronger in Jesus. A shepherd is close to the people... if he is not then he is not a shepherd, he is a hierarch, he is an administrator, perhaps good, but he is not a shepherd. Proximity to the people. St. John Paul II he gave us the example of this closeness: near the big and small, near and far, always close, he made himself close. Thirdly, love for justice. But full justice! A man who wanted justice, social justice, justice of peoples, justice that drives wars away...! This is why St. John Paul II was the man of mercy, because justice and mercy go together, they cannot be distinguished [in the sense of separating], they are together: justice is justice, mercy is mercy, but one without the other, it's not found. And speaking of the man of justice and mercy, we think what St. John Paul II did to make people understand the mercy of God. We think how he carried out devotion to Saint Faustina [Kowalska] whose liturgical memory from today it will be for the whole Church. He had heard that God's righteousness had this face of mercy, this attitude of mercy. And this is a gift that he left us: justice-mercy and right mercy. Let us pray to him today to give all of us, especially the pastors of the Church but to all, the grace of prayer, the grace of closeness and the grace of justice-mercy, mercy-justice.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Ps 116: 15

Are You Tired of Crooked Teeth But Can't Afford Braces?

For some, according to Dr. Isakow, General Dentist, straightening their teeth with braces is outside their budget. "Some people are embarrassed by their crooked teeth but couldn't afford the high up front cost of braces," says Dr. Isakow. "That's why I'm offering affordable payment terms with low down payments to fit anyone's budget." Dr. Isakow currently offers braces as low as $99/month, $499 down, 0% interest.
