October 18, 2020

Sometimes, like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, we don't like to change those habits and relationships that keep us from putting God first. Jesus' wise response to those who wish to trap him, to give to God what is God's and to human authorities what is theirs, reminds us that God's authority over our lives comes first.

*****

Talvolta, come i farisei del Vangelo di oggi, non ci piace cambiare le abitudini e le relazioni che ci impediscono di mettere Dio al primo posto. La saggia risposta di Gesù a chi voleva incastrarlo, cioè di dare a Dio ciò che è di Dio e alle autorità terrene quello che compete loro, ci ricorda che Dio viene prima di ogni altra autorità che governa le nostre vite..

*****

A veces, como los Fariseos en el Evangelio de hoy, no nos gusta cambiar esos hábitos y relaciones que nos impiden poner a Dios en primer lugar. La sabia respuesta de Jesús a aquellos que desean atraparlo, dar a Dios lo que es de Dios y a las autoridades humanas lo que es de ellos, nos recuerda que la autoridad de Dios sobre nuestras vidas es lo primero.

Pope Francis' Message

...in Assisi, Carlo Acutis, a 15-year-old youth enamoured of the Eucharist, was beatified. He did not ease into comfortable immobilism, but understood the needs of his time, because he saw the face of Christ in the weakest. His witness indicates to today's young people that true happiness is found by putting God in first place & serving Him in our brothers & sisters, especially the least. A round of applause for the new young Blessed! I would like to recall the prayer intention that I proposed for this month of October: which goes like this: "We pray that by the virtue of baptism, the laity, especially women, may participate more in areas of responsibility in the Church". Because none of us was baptized neither priest nor bishop: we were all baptized as lay persons, male & female. Lay people are the protagonists of the Church. Today there is a need to broaden the spaces of a more vivid feminine presence in the Church, & of a female lay presence, meaning, but underscoring the feminine aspect, because in general women are set aside. We must promote the integration of women in the places in which important decisions are taken. Let us pray that, by virtue of baptism, the lay faithful, especially women, may participate more in the institutions of responsibility in the Church, without falling into the clericalisms that nullify the lay charism & also tarnish the face of the Holy Mother Church. Sunday, 18 October, the Aid to the Church in Need Foundation promotes the "One Million Children Praying the Rosary" campaign for unity & peace. I encourage this beautiful event that involves children throughout the world, who will pray especially for critical situations caused by the pandemic. I greet all of you... from various countries: families, parish groups, associations & individual faithful... Please, do not forget to pray for me...

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Are You Tired of Crooked Teeth But Can't Afford Braces?

For some, according to Dr. Isakow, General Dentist, straightening their teeth with braces is outside their budget. "Some people are embarrassed by their crooked teeth but couldn't afford the high up front cost of braces," says Dr. Isakow. "That's why I'm offering affordable payment terms with low down payments to fit anyone's budget." Dr. Isakow currently offers braces as low as $99/month, $499 down, 0% interest.
