VOCACTIONS: Our Father Francis' joyful presence of hope & salvation to those most in need calls to those with this same spirit. Would you, young men of courage, commitment and challenge, like to spread the Good News while being rooted in a Capuchin-Franciscan community? LIVE THE DREAM & MAKE A DIFFERENCE!! Email Vocations Director Br. Louis: vocations@capuchinscanada.com or capuchinscanada.com/newcapuchins

SECULAR FRANCISCANS are Catholic lay persons, who seek to joyfully LIVE THE GOSPEL in the footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi. Are you being called to witness your love of Christ in your daily life? Come, experience JOY with the members of St. Felix of Cantalice Fraternity every 4th Sunday of the month at the 12:00 noon Mass followed by a Fraternal meeting until 3:30pm. Please email: stfelixsfo@gmail.com for more information.

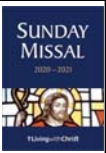

Our Heavenly Father’s words to His Son Jesus at his baptism by John in the Jordan are also proclaimed to us on the day of our baptisms: “You are God’s Beloved, in whom I am well pleased.” When we come to accept God’s unconditional love for us we have the courage to go out and share our joy with others. Baptism and mission go hand-in-hand. The same Spirit that hovered over the waters of Creation also hovers over us as God’s Beloved sons and daughters. As faithful disciples of Jesus we are called to set the world on fire with the same fiery love given to us at our baptisms.

Le parole del Padre Celeste a suo figlio Gesù per il suo battesimo nel Giordano da parte di San Giovanni, hanno risuonato anche nel giorno del nostro battesimo, rivolte a noi: “Tu sei il Figlio Diletto, nel quale mi sono compiaciuto”. Quando ci decidiamo ad accettare l’infinito amore che Dio ha per noi allora troviamo il coraggio di mostrarci e di condividere la nostra gioia con gli altri. Il Battesimo e l’impegno vanno assieme. Lo spirito sopra di noi come figli prediletti di Dio è lo stesso che formò i mari alla Creazione. Come fedeli seguaci di Gesù siamo chiamati ad infiammare il mondo con lo stesso amore ardente che abbiamo ricevuto al nostro battesimo.

Las palabras de nuestro Padre Celestial a Su Hijo Jesús en su bautismo por Juan en el Jordán también nos son proclamadas el día de nuestros bautismos: "Tú eres el Amado de Dios, en quien tengo complacencia". Cuando aceptamos el amor incondicional de Dios por nosotros, tenemos el coraje de salir y compartir nuestro gozo con los demás. El bautismo y la misión van de la mano. El mismo Espíritu que se cernía sobre las aguas de la Creación también se cernie sobre nosotros como hijos e hijas amados de Dios. Como fieles discípulos de Jesús, estamos llamados a prender fuego al mundo con el mismo amor ardiente que se nos dió en nuestros bautismos.

“Destiny is simply the strength of your desire; if you cry at trouble, it would seem, it grows double; however, if you laugh at the trouble, it disappears like a bubble.”
Say the wise heart is not a basket for keeping tension and sadness, it seems, but a golden box for keeping roses of happiness. Do you experience it that way?

FRANCISCAN SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Jan. 11 Saint Thomas of Cori, OFM: Born in 1655, he was the son of very devout parents. After their death, he joined the Franciscans and later became known as the apostle of Subiaco where he spent much time ministering to the people there. He died in 1729. Jan. 12 St. Bernard of Corleone, OFM Cap.: Born in Sicily in 1605, he had a bad temper as a young man. After his conversion he joined the Capuchins as a lay friar, he lived a very austere but prayerful life. He had a great devotion to the Blessed Mother and died in 1667. Jan. 16 St. Berard and his companions, OFM: They were the first martyrs of the Franciscan Order having gone to Morocco to preach the Gospel to the Muslims. They inspired St. Francis of Assisi to travel to the Middle East. All died 1220.

Pope Francis' Message

A few days after Christmas... [we] turn our eyes to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. It is good to reflect on the fact that the Son of God wanted to be in need of the warmth of a family, like all children. Precisely for this reason, because it is Jesus' family, the family of Nazareth is the model family, in which all families of the world can find their sure point of reference and sure inspiration... Within the welcoming walls of the House of Nazareth, Jesus' childhood unfolded in joy, surrounded by the maternal attention of Mary and the care of Joseph, in whom Jesus was able to see God's tenderness... we are called to rediscover... the love that always regenerates relationships, opens up horizons of hope... experience sincere communion when it is a house of prayer, when the affections are serious, profound, pure, when forgiveness prevails over discord, when the daily harshness of life is softened by mutual tenderness and serene adherence to God's will. In this way, the family opens itself to the joy that God gives to all those who know how to give joyfully. At the same time, it finds the spiritual energy to be open to the outside world, to others, to the service..., to collaboration in building an ever new and better world... the family evangelizes by example of life. It is true, in every family there are problems, and at times arguments. "And, Father, I argued..." but we are human, we are weak, and we all quarrel within the family at times. I would like to say something to you: if you quarrel within the family... before the end of the day, make peace. And do you know why? Because cold war, day after day, is extremely dangerous. It does not help. And then, in the family there are three words, three phrases that must always be held dear: "Please", "Thank you," and "I am sorry." "Please," so as not to be intrusive in the life of others... Please, the first word. "Thank you," so much help, so much service is granted to us in the family: always say thank you. Gratitude is the lifeblood of the noble soul. "Thank you." The hardest to say: "I am sorry." Because we always do bad things and very often someone is offended by this: "I am sorry..." Do not forget the three words: "please," "thank you," and "I am sorry..." the family is fine. ...Let us entrust this journey, with families all over the world, to the Holy Family of Nazareth, in particular to Saint Joseph, the devoted spouse and father. May the Virgin Mary... grant that families throughout the world... a leaven of new humanity and of a genuine and universal solidarity.
