Nel Vangelo odierno di San Giovanni, leggiamo del primo incontro di Gesù con gli Apostoli. Si sarebbe rivelato un incontro straordinario e ricco di conseguenze. Certamente gli Apostoli sono stati impressionati da Lui e questa prima esperienza ha cambiato completamente le loro vite. Noi incontriamo Gesù ogni volta che partecipiamo all'Eucaristia. Ma incontriamo veramente Gesù nell'Eucaristia? Questo incontro cambia le nostre vite oppure è diventato una abitudine che non cambia nulla?

*****

En el evangelio de Juan de hoy leemos el primer encuentro que tiene lugar entre los apóstoles y Jesús. Habría sido asombroso y transformador. Los apóstoles ciertamente fueron tocados por él y esa primera experiencia cambió sus vidas totalmente. Nos encontramos con Jesús cada vez que participamos en la Eucaristía.

¿Experimentamos verdaderamente a Jesús en la Eucaristía? ¿Eso transforma nuestras vidas o se convierte en un ritual de rutina sin cambios?

*****

In today's Gospel from John, we read the first encounter that takes place between the apostles and Jesus. It would have been an amazing and transformative one. The apostles were certainly touched by him and that first experience changed their lives totally. We encounter Jesus every time we participate in the Eucharist. Do we truly experience Jesus in the Eucharist? Does that transform our lives or does it become a routine ritual with no change?

SUNDAY MISSAL
2021 SUNDAY MISSALS
Living with Christ ~ Our companion to praying & living the Eucharist. Complete Scripture readings & all the prayers for Sunday Mass with Saints bios & inspirational quotes. $6.00 each at the office.

Eucharistic Adoration is the act of adoring the Eucharistic presence of Christ. The Church believes that... the Most Blessed Sacrament is worthy of our adoration. To adore God is to acknowledge God "as God, as the Creator & Saviour, the Lord & Master of everything that exists, as infinite and merciful Love" (CCC: 2096-2097). "We can pray anywhere," Cardinal Collins writes, "but there is no more fitting place to pray on earth than in the sacramental presence of the Lord. There we are profoundly struck with the awesome mystery of God's grace."

VOCATION CORNER

A good vocation prayer to say every day - from the time we are young until we are in our golden years - is found in today's first Scripture reading: "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening." Just try it with sincerity, starting today and, if you think God is calling you to be a Capuchin priest or Brother, please call Br. Louis Mousseau, OFM Cap. 1-226-881-0065 or diocesan priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

Pope Francis' Message

...After these 30 years of hidden life, Jesus' public life begins. And indeed it begins with the baptism in the River Jordan... John's baptism consisted in a penitential rite; it was a sign of one's willingness to convert, to be better, asking forgiveness of one's sins. Jesus surely did not need it. In fact, John the Baptist tries to prevent it, but Jesus insists. Why? Because he wants to be with the sinners: for this reason he gets in line with them and does the same thing they do. He does so with the attitude of the people, ...approached "with bare soul and bare feet." A bare soul, that is, without anything covered, like this, a sinner. This is the gesture Jesus makes, and he goes down into the river to immerse himself in the same condition we are in. Indeed, baptism actually means "immersion." On the first day of his ministry, Jesus... tells us that he does not save us from on high, with a sovereign decision or act of force, a decree, no: He saves us by coming to meet us and taking our sins upon himself. This is how God conquers worldly evil: by humbling himself, taking charge of it. It is also the way that we can lift up others: not by judging, not by suggesting what to do, but by becoming neighbours, empathizing, sharing God's love. Closeness is God's manner with us; he himself says so to Moses: "Think: what people has its gods as close as you have me?" Closeness is God's manner with us. After this act of compassion by Jesus, another extraordinary thing happens: the heavens open and the Trinity is finally revealed. The Holy Spirit descends from the heavens like a dove (Mk 1:10) and the Father says to Jesus: "You are my beloved Son; with You I am well pleased" (v. 11). God manifests himself when mercy appears. Do not forget this: God manifests himself when mercy appears, because that is his face. Jesus becomes the servant of sinners and is proclaimed the Son; he lowers himself upon us and the Spirit descends upon him. Love calls upon love. It also applies to us: in each act of service, in every work of mercy we perform, God manifests himself; God sets his gaze upon the world. This applies to us. But, even before we do anything, our life was marked by mercy and it was laid upon us. We have been saved freely. Salvation is free. It is the freely given gesture of God's mercy toward us. Sacramentally, this is done on the day of our Baptism; but even those who are not baptized always receive God's mercy, because God is there waiting for them to open the doors of their hearts. He draws near, allow me to say, he caresses us with his mercy. May Our Lady, to whom we now pray, help us to cherish our baptismal identity, that is, the identity of being 'merciful-ized', which lies at the base of faith and life.
