Cuando hacemos un cambio radical, nos convertimos en parte del Reino de Dios. Estamos efectivamente bajo la influencia del amor y la misericordia de Dios en nuestras vidas. Comenzamos a ver las cosas como Dios las ve y nuestro comportamiento cambia en consecuencia. El llamado no es solo a lamentar los pecados pasados y no volver a cometerlos. Necesitamos un cambio completo de dirección, una profunda participación en hacer la obra de Dios. Ese trabajo implica trabajar juntos para acabar con la pobreza, el odio, la indigencia, el hambre, el desempleo, la codicia desenfrenada, la ambición egoísta, el consumismo derrochador y la injusticia social. El Reino aún no ha llegado. Todavía queda mucho por hacer, ahora mismo, aquí mismo, donde vivimos. ¿Estoy dispuesto a trabajar y orar por el Reino de Dios?

When we make a radical change, we become part of the Kingdom of God. We effectively come under the influence of God's love and mercy in our lives. We begin to see things the way God sees them and our behavior changes accordingly. The call is not just to be sorry for past sins and not to commit them anymore. We need a complete change of direction, a deep involvement in doing God's work. That work involves working together to end poverty, hatred, destitution, hunger, joblessness, rampant greed, selfish ambition, wasteful consumerism and social injustice. The Kingdom has not yet arrived. There is still much to be done, right now, right here where we live. Am I willing to work and pray for God's Kingdom?

Quando decidiamo di cambiare completamente la nostra vita, allora cominciamo a far parte del Regno di Dio. Allora l'Amore e la Misericordia di Dio agiscono veramente sulle nostre vite. Cominciamo a vedere le cose come Dio le vede e le nostre azioni cambiano in conseguenza. La scelta non è soltanto di pentirsi per i peccati fatti e di proporsi di non farne più. Ci vuole un cambiamento radicale, un impegno completo a lavorare con Dio. Questo lavoro significa lavorare con Lui per porre fine a povertà, odio, miseria, fame, disoccupazione, avidità sfrenata, vanagloria, consumismo sprecone e ingiustizia sociale. Il Suo Regno non è ancora realizzato. Resta ancora molto da fare: proprio adesso e proprio qui dove viviamo. Lavorerò e pregherò perché venga il regno di Dio?

As we continue to live this pandemic, the following certainly help us to cope.

1. Take a 10 to 30 minute walk everyday. While you walk , learn to smile. It has been proper that it is the ultimate anti-depressant.
2. Try to sit each day in silence at least for ten minutes.
3. When you wake up in the morning, pray to God asking for guidance.

VOCATION CORNER

The call of the disciples is so familiar to us that we tend to miss the wonder of the disciples' response, which was immediate and complete; they leave everything and follow Jesus. Can we do less if we feel that God is calling us. If you think God is calling you to be a Capuchin priest or Brother, please call Br. Louis 1-226-881-0065 or diocesan priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt at 416-968-0997.

Pope Francis' Message

...John the Baptist... points out the Messiah to the two with these words: "Behold, the Lamb of God..." Jesus... says: "Come and see..." an invitation for an encounter. The two follow Him and remained... with Him... imagine them seated asking Him questions and above all listening to Him, feeling their hearts enflamed ever more while the Master speaks. They sense the beauty of the words that respond to their greatest hope... they discover that... in their hearts, that light that only God can give was exploding within them. One thing that catches our attention: sixty years later, or maybe more, one of them would write in his Gospel: "it was about four in the afternoon" – he wrote the time. And this is one thing that makes us think: every authentic encounter with Jesus remains alive in the memory, it is never forgotten... a true encounter with Jesus remains forever. And many years later, those two even remembered the time... that it changed their lives. Then, when they leave from that meeting and return to their brothers, that joy, that light overflows from their hearts like a raging river. One of the two, Andrew, says to his brother, Simon – whom Jesus will call Peter when He will meet him – "We have found the Messiah..." They're certain that Jesus was the Messiah. Let us pause a moment on this experience of meeting Christ who calls us to remain with Him. Each one of God's calls is an initiative of His love. He is the one who always takes the initiative. He calls you. God calls to life, He calls to faith, and He calls to a particular state in life: "I want you here." God's first call is to life, through which He makes us persons; it is an individual call because God does not make things in series. Then God calls us to faith and to become part of His family as children of God. Lastly, God calls us to a particular state in life: to give of ourselves on the path of matrimony, or that of the priesthood or the consecrated life. They are different ways of realizing God's design that He has for each one of us that is always a design of love. God calls. And the greatest joy for every believer is to respond to that call, offering one's entire being to the service of God... which reaches us in a thousand ways – through others, happy or sad events – our attitude at times might be rejection. No... "I am afraid"... Rejection because it seems to be in contrast to our aspirations; and even fear because we believe it is too demanding and uncomfortable: "Oh no, I will never be able to do it, better not to, a calmer life is better... God over there, me here." God's call is always love: we need to try to discover the love behind each call, and it should be responded to only with love. This is the language: the response to a call that comes out of love, only love. At the beginning there is an encounter, or rather, there is the encounter with Jesus who speaks to us of His Father, He makes His love known to us. And then the spontaneous desire will arise even in us to communicate it to the people that we love: "I met Love," "I met the Messiah," "I met Jesus," "I found the meaning of my life." In a word: "I found God." May the Virgin Mary help us make of our lives a hymn of praise to God in response to His call and in the humble and joyful fulfillment of His will. But let us remember this: there was a moment for each one of us, in his or her life, in which God made Himself present more strongly, with a call. Let us remember that. Let us go back to that moment so that the memory of that moment might always renew that encounter with Jesus for us.
