Come, experience JOY with the members of St. Felix of Cantalice Fraternity every 4th Sunday of the month at the 12:00 noon Mass followed by a Fraternal meeting until 3:30pm. The central theme of the Gospel today is the authority of Jesus in his words and deeds. Jesus teaches in the synagogue of Capernaum with authority (1:22) and exorcizes the evil from a person with authority (1:28). The text narrates his authority over the temporal and supernatural spheres. The Greek word “exousia” refers to authority which means an act with sovereign freedom. The scribes teach the people with their knowledge of Torah and its traditions. On the contrary, Jesus teaches the people with divine authority. He interprets the Torah with newness which exalts the compassion and the benevolence of God towards anawim, His poor and brings them hope and joy.

L'argomento principale del Vangelo di oggi è il valore che hanno le parole e le azioni di Gesù. Gesù insegna nella sinagoga di Cafarnaon come colui che ne ha l'autorità (1,22) e scaccia il demone come colui che ne ha il potere (1,28). Il testo della narrazione mostra che Lui domina sia il mondo materiale che spirituale. Con la parola greca “exousia” si descrive un potere libero di agire senza limitazioni. Gli scribi insegnavano al popolo secondo quello che conoscevano della Legge tramandato loro. Gesù, invece, insegna alla gente con autorità divina. Lui interpreta la Legge sottolineando la compassione e la preferenza che Dio accorda agli anawim, agli ultimi che sperano in Lui, portando loro speranza e gioia.

El tema central del Evangelio de hoy es la autoridad de Jesús en sus palabras y obras. Jesús enseña en la sinagoga de Capernaum con autoridad (1,22) y exorciza el mal de una persona con autoridad (1,28). El texto narra su autoridad sobre las esferas temporal y sobrenatural. La palabra griega “exousia” se refiere a la autoridad que significa un acto con libertad soberana. Los Escribas enseñan a la gente con su conocimiento de la Torá y sus tradiciones. Al contrario, Jesús enseña a la gente con autoridad divina. Él interpreta la Torá con una novedad que exalta la compasión y la benevolencia de Dios hacia anawim, sus pobres y les trae esperanza y alegría.

Nothing happens without a reason even though we may not understand the reason. Each person who has crossed your life has come either to teach you something or to learn something from you. If one may ask how to keep relations evergreen, here are the tips:
A drop of care,
a touch of trust,
a pinch of promise,
a bit of respect,
and positive messages.

Pope Francis' Message

...the journey of Ordinary Time, let us not tire of invoking the light and strength of the Holy Spirit, so that he may help us to experience ordinary things with love and thereby render them extraordinary. It is love that transforms: ordinary things seem to continue being ordinary, but when they are done with love they become extraordinary. If we remain open, docile, to the Spirit, he inspires our daily thoughts and actions. ...I express my closeness to the population of the Island of Sulawesi in Indonesia, hit by a strong earthquake. I pray for the deceased, for the wounded, and for all those who lost their homes and jobs. May the Lord console and sustain the efforts of all those who are engaged in bringing aid. Let us pray together for our brothers and sisters of Sulawesi, and for the victims of the airplane accident that also happened in Indonesia last Saturday. (Hail Mary...) The Day for deepening and developing the dialogue between Catholics and Jews is being celebrated in Italy. I am delighted that this initiative has been going on for over thirty years, and I hope that it might bear abundant fruits of fraternity and collaboration... an important day: The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity begins. This year, the theme refers to Jesus's counsel: "Abide in my love and you shall bear much fruit". And Monday, 25 January, we will conclude it with the celebration of Vespers in the Basilica of St Paul Outside the Walls, together with representatives of other Churches and Christian communities present in Rome. In these days, let us pray together so that Jesus' desire might be accomplished – that all may be one: unity, that is, always superior to conflict. I extend my cordial greetings to all of you who are connected through the means of social communication. I wish all of you good... Please, do not forget to pray for me...

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Ps 116: 15
† Let us pray for the souls of those who passed away this week:
