SECULAR FRANCISCANS are Catholic lay persons, who seek to joyfully LIVE THE GOSPEL in the footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi. Are you being called to witness your love of Christ in your daily life? Come, experience JOY with the members of St. Felix of Cantalice Fraternity every 4th Sunday of the month at the 12:00 noon Mass followed by a Fraternal meeting until 3:30pm. Please email: stfelixsfo@gmail.com for more information.

Cualquiera con lepra era considerado un marginado religioso y social durante los tiempos bíblicos. Las llamadas personas normales y saludables nunca se acercarían a ellos. Sin embargo, Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy se acerca a ellos y, por lo tanto, reconoce su dignidad. Los toca y los cura. ¿Condenaré a los demás? ¿U otros me han condenado al ostracismo? El camino de Jesús es extender la mano y sanar a esas personas y mostrarles que Dios se preocupa por ellas.

Anyone with leprosy was considered a religious and social outcast during biblical times. So called normal and healthy people would never go near them. However Jesus in today's Gospel reaches out to them and thereby recognizes their dignity. He touches and heals them. Do I ostracize others? Or have I been ostracized by others? Jesus' way is to reach out and heal such people and to show that God cares for them

*****

Ai tempi della Bibbia, chiunque avesse la lebbra veniva escluso dalla religione e dalla società. Le persone, diciamo così, sane e normali non li avrebbero neppure avvicinati. Invece nel Vangelo di oggi, Gesù li avvicina e rispetta la loro dignità. Li tocca e li guarisce. Forse anch'io escludo qualcun'altro? Lo stile di Gesù è di avvicinarsi e guarire ogni persona per mostrare che Dio si prende cura di loro.

Real beauty is not what the eyes can behold but what the heart can hold. What we see with our eyes will vanish some day, whereas, what we store n our hearts will stay forever.

Every season has a beautiful reason (even this pandemic), every problem has a meaningful message. So what we all need is a fresh vision.

VOCATION CORNER

Today's Gospel says that "Jesus was moved with pity when He saw a leper." Are you moved with love and compassion when you see the outcasts of today's society? Today, Jesus continues to call forward men and women to minister as he did. If you think God is calling you to be a Capuchin priest or Brother, please call Br. Louis Mousseau, OFM Cap. 1-226-881-0065 or diocesan priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

Pope Francis' Message

...The healing of Peter's mother-in-law... a woman is in bed with a fever; Jesus' attitude and gesture toward her are emblematic: "he came and took her by the hand, the Evangelist notes. There is so much tenderness in this simple act... "the fever left her; and she served them." Jesus' healing power meets no resistance; and the person healed resumes her normal life, immediately thinking of others and not of herself – this is significant; it is the sign of true "health!" That day was Sabbath... The people of the village wait for sundown and then... they go out and bring to Jesus all those who are sick and possessed by demons. And he heals them, but forbids the demons to reveal that he is the Christ. Thus, from the very beginning, Jesus shows his predilection for people suffering in body and in spirit: it is a predilection of Jesus to draw near to people who suffer both in body and in spirit. It is the Father's predilection, which he incarnates and manifests with deeds and words. His disciples were eyewitnesses to this; they saw this and then witnessed to it. But Jesus did not want just spectators of his mission: he involved them; he sent them; he also gave them the power to heal the sick and cast out demon. And this has continued without interruption in the life of the Church, up to today. And this is important. Taking care of the sick of every kind is not an "optional activity" for the Church, no! It is not something extra, no. Taking care of the sick of every kind is an integral part of the Church's mission, as it was for Jesus'. And this mission is to bring God's tenderness to a suffering humanity. We will be reminded of this in a few days, on 11 February, with the World Day of the Sick. The reality that we are experiencing throughout the world due to the pandemic makes this message, this essential mission of the Church, particularly relevant. The voice of Job, which echoes... is once again the interpreter our human condition, so lofty in dignity... and at the same time so fragile. In the face of this reality, the question "why?" always arises in the heart. And to this question Jesus, the Word Incarnate, responds not with an explanation... but with a loving presence that bends down, that takes by the hand and lifts up, as he did with Peter's mother-in-law bending down to lift up the other. Let us not forget that the only legitimate way to look at a person from top down is when you stretch out a hand to help them get up. And this is the mission that Jesus entrusted to the Church. The Son of God manifests his Lordship not "from top down," not from a distance, but in bending down, stretching out his hand; he manifests his Lordship in closeness, in tenderness, in compassion. Closeness, tenderness, compassion are the style of God. God draws near, and he draws near with tenderness and compassion. How many times in the Gospel do we read, before a health problem or any problem: "he had compassion." Jesus' compassion, God's closeness in Jesus is the style of God. Today's Gospel passage also reminds us that this compassion is deeply rooted in the intimate relationship with the Father. Why? Before daybreak and after sundown, Jesus withdrew and remained alone to pray. From there he drew the strength to fulfill his mission, preaching and healing. May the Holy Virgin help us to allow Jesus to heal us – we always need this, everyone – so that we might in our turn be witnesses to God's healing tenderness.
