Nella seconda Domenica di Quaresima la liturgia ci presenta la Trasfigurazione del Signore. Gesù conduce Pietro, Giacomo e Giovanni sulla cima del monte e dinanzi ai loro occhi si trasforma nello splendore della sua divinità mostrandosi attraverso la sua natura umana. La narrazione inizia con l'espressione: "Dopo sei giorni..." (Marco 9:2). Infatti sei giorni prima della Trasfigurazione, Gesù aveva domandato ai suoi discepoli: "Chi dice, la gente, che io sia?" Loro avevano risposto: "Alcuni dicono Giovanni il Battista, altri poi Elia e altri uno dei profeti." "E voi, chi dite che io sia?" Domandò loro Gesù. Pietro rispose: "Tu sei il Messia" (Marco: 8: 29). Per questo motivo Gesù ha voluto mostrare la grandezza della sua gloria ai suoi discepoli che non erano ancora pronti a credere alla passione e morte del Messia che avrebbe sconfitto il peccato e la morte con la sua Resurrezione. Per condividere la sua gloria dobbiamo ascoltarlo. Questa è la sola regola.

Al celebrar el segundo domingo de Cuaresma, la Liturgia narra la Transfiguración del Señor. Jesús llevó a Pedro, Santiago y Juan a la montaña y se transfiguró ante su vista a la luz de su naturaleza divina que brillaba a través del velo de su naturaleza humana. El texto comienza con la frase: "seis días después ...". (Marcos 9,2). Seis días antes de la Transfiguración, Jesús preguntó a su discípulo: "¿Quién dice la gente que soy?" Dijeron: "La gente dice que eres Juan el Bautista, Elías o un profeta. "¿Quién dices que soy?" Les he preguntado. Pedro respondió: "Tú eres el Mesías" (Mc 8, 29). Por lo tanto, Jesús mostró los climas de su gloria a sus discípulos que aún estaban listos para creer en el Mesías que sufría y agonizaba y que conquistaría el pecado y la muerte a través de su resurrección. Para convertirnos en participantes de su gloria, tenemos que escucharlo. Este es el único mandamiento.

As we celebrate the second Sunday of Lent, the Liturgy narrates the Transfiguration of the Lord. Jesus took Peter, James and John up to the mountain and transfigured before their sight in the light of his divine nature shining through the veil of his human nature. The text begins with the phrase: "six days later..." (Mk.9,2). Six days prior to the Transfiguration, Jesus asked his disciple, "Who do people say that I am?" They said, "The people say that you are John the Baptist, Elijah or a prophet. "Who do you say that I am?" he asked them. Peter answered, "You are the Messiah" (Mk. 8, 29). Therefore, Jesus showed the brilliance of his glory to his disciples who were yet ready to believe the suffering, dying Messiah who would conquer the sin and death through his Resurrection. To become the partakers of his glory, we have to listen to Him. This is the only commandment.

“...St. Francis reminds us that our lives are of value. Whether we give everything away like he did or we simply see how close God is in creation, Francis’ prayer
“My God and My All” must also be ours. Lent is a time to realign our hearts with “My God and My All” especially if our all is becoming all too consuming of things and situations which are not life-giving...”

VOCATION CORNER

If you need examples of persons responding to God's call, look at Abraham and Sarah - called in old age to leave their country and have a child. Then Abraham was asked to sacrifice that child. What faith! If you think God is calling you to be a Capuchin priest or Brother, please call Br. Louis 1-226-881-0065 or diocesan priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Pope Francis' Message

...Every year, at the beginning of Lent, this Gospel of the temptations of Jesus in the desert reminds us that the Christian life in the footsteps of the Lord, is a battle against the spirit of evil. It shows us that Jesus willingly faced the Tempter, and defeated him; and at the same time it reminds us that the devil is granted the possibility of acting on us too, with his temptations. We must be aware of the presence of this astute enemy, who seeks our eternal condemnation, failure, and prepare to defend ourselves against him and to combat him. The grace of God assures us, with faith, prayer and penance, of our victory over the enemy. But I would like to underline one thing: in the temptations, Jesus never enters into dialogue with the devil - never. In his life, Jesus never had a dialogue with the devil - never. Either Jesus banishes them from the possessed; He condemns him, or He shows his malice, but never a dialogue. And in the desert, it seems that there is a dialogue because the devil makes three proposals and Jesus responds. But Jesus does not respond with His words. He answers with the Word of God, with three passages of Scripture... When the seducer approaches [us], he begins to seduce us: "But think of this, do that..." the temptation is to dialogue with him, as Eve did. Eve said: "But you can't, because we..." and entered into dialogue. And if we enter into dialogue with the devil, we will be defeated. Keep this in your head and in your heart: you can never enter into dialogue with the devil, no dialogue is possible, only the Word of God... During the Season of Lent, the Holy Spirit drives us too, like Jesus, into the desert. It is not, as we have seen, a physical place, but rather an existential dimension in which we can be silent and listen to the word of God, "so that a true conversion might be effected in us." Do not be afraid of the desert; seek out moments of more prayer and of silence to enter into us. Do not be afraid. We are called to walk in God's footsteps, renewing our Baptismal promises: renouncing Satan, and all his works and all his empty promises. The enemy is crouching there, beware. But never dialogue with him. Let us entrust ourselves to the maternal intercession of the Virgin Mary.

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Ps 116: 15
