March 7, 2021

El Templo de Jerusalén estuvo una vez en el corazón del culto Judío. La purificación de Jesús de ese Templo es, quizás, un recordatorio para nosotros durante esta Cuaresma de limpiar los templos que llamamos nuestro cuerpo, de limpiarlos de todo ídolo, de permitir que el Espíritu Santo adore al Padre, a través de nosotros, en espíritu y en verdad.

*****

The Jerusalem Temple once stood at the heart of Jewish worship. Jesus' cleansing of that Temple is, perhaps, a reminder to us during this Lent to cleanse the temples we call our bodies, to cleanse them of every idol, to allow the Holy Spirit to worship the Father, through us, in spirit and truth.

*****

Il tempio di Gerusalemme era il cuore del culto ebraico dei giudei. La pulizia che Gesù inizia in quel Tempio può ricordarci di purificare il tempio del nostro corpo in questa quaresima, liberarlo da ogni idolo per lodare il Padre con lo Spirito Santo in spirito e verità attraverso di noi.

VOCATION CORNER

Jesus cleaned out the temple of money-changers. He was angry; He was zealous; He spoke with authority. He was doing what He had to do even though it involved risk, danger, insult and wonder. Such is a religious vocation in the Church. If you think God is calling you to be a Capuchin priest or Brother, please call Br. Louis Mousseau, OFM Cap. 1-226-881-0065 or diocesan priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

Pope Francis' Message

...Lent invites us to contemplate the transfiguration of Jesus... Just before, Jesus had announced that in Jerusalem he would suffer greatly, be rejected and put to death. ...the image of a strong and triumphant Messiah, the disciples dreams are shattered, and ...the Teacher in whom they had believed would be killed... And in that very moment, with that anguish of soul, Jesus calls Peter, James and John and takes them up the mountain with him. The ...mountain always has a special significance: it is the elevated place where heaven and earth touch each other, where Moses and the prophets had the extraordinary experience of encountering God. Climbing the mountain is drawing somewhat close to God. Jesus climbs up ...and is transfigured before them. His face radiant and his garments glistening, providing a preview of the image as the Risen One, offer to those frightened men the light of hope the light to pass through the shadows: death will not be the end of everything, because it will open to the glory of the Resurrection. Thus, Jesus announces his death; he takes them up the mountain and shows them what will happen afterwards, the Resurrection... It is a call to remember, especially when we pass through a difficult trial... that the Lord is Risen and does not permit darkness to have the last word. At times we go through moments of darkness in our personal, family or social life, and we fear that there is no way out... of illness, pain or the mystery of death... We too are called to climb up the mountain, to contemplate the beauty of the Risen One who enkindles glimmers of light in every fragment of our life and helps us to interpret history beginning with his paschal victory. Let us be careful, however: that feeling of Peter that "it is well that we are here" must not become spiritual laziness. We cannot remain on the mountain and enjoy the beauty of this encounter by ourselves. Jesus brings us back to the valley, amid our brothers and sisters and into daily life. We must beware of spiritual laziness: we are fine, with our prayers and liturgies, and this is enough for us. No! Going up the mountain does not mean forgetting reality; praying never means avoiding the difficulties of life; the light of faith is not meant to provide beautiful spiritual feelings. No, this is not Jesus' message. We are called to experience the encounter with Christ so that, enlightened by his light, we might take it and make it shine everywhere. Igniting little lights in people's hearts; being little lamps of the Gospel that bear a bit of love and hope: this is the mission of a Christian. Let us pray to Mary Most Holy, that she may help us to welcome the light of Christ with wonder, to safeguard it and share it.
