May 2, 2021

Celebriamo la quinta Domenica del tempo di Pasqua, le parole di Gesù ci ricordano che se siamo legati a Lui con la preghiera e i sacramenti, allora possiamo testimoniare il grande dono dell'amore di Dio per noi e per il nostro ambiente godendo della sua gioia nella pace.

Al celebrar este quinto domingo de Pascua, las palabras de Jesús nos recuerdan que cuando nuestras vidas están arraigadas en él en la oración y a través de los sacramentos, dan testimonio del gran don del amor de Dios por nosotros y por nuestro mundo, especialmente los "frutos" de su paz y alegría.

As we celebrate this 5th Sunday of Easter, Jesus's words remind us that when our lives are rooted in him in prayer and through the sacraments, that they bear witness to the great gift of God's love for us and for our world, especially the "fruits" of his peace and joy.

ShareLife is a tangible way we can put the Gospel value to 'love one another as I have loved you' into action. I invite all parishioners to support the mission work of the church by making a sacrificial gift to ShareLife." —Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto (22APR2018)

Pope Francis' Message

...on Good Shepherd Sunday, the Gospel presents Jesus as the true shepherd who defends, knows and loves his sheep. The "mercenary" is [not] the Good Shepherd, the one who does not care about the sheep because they are not his. He does the job only for pay and is not concerned about defending them: when a wolf arrives, he flees and abandons them. Instead, Jesus, the true shepherd, defends us always and saves us from so many difficult situations, dangerous situations through the light of his word and the strength of his presence that we always experience if we want to listen, every day. The 2nd aspect is that Jesus, the good shepherd, knows – the 1st aspect: defend; the 2nd: he knows his sheep & the sheep know Him. How beautiful & consoling it is to know that Jesus knows us one by one, that we are not unknown to Him, that our name is known to him! We are not a "mass," a "multitude" for Him, no. We are unique individuals, each with his or her own story, he knows us with our own story... value, both because they have been created & have been redeemed by Christ. Each of us can say: Jesus, knows me! ...It is true, it is like this: He knows us like no other. Only He knows what is in our hearts, our intentions, our most hidden feelings. Jesus knows our strengths, our defects & is always ready to care for us, to heal the wounds of our errors with the abundance of his mercy. In Him, the image the prophets provided: the shepherd of God's people is completely fulfilled: Jesus is concerned about his sheep, he gathers them, he binds their wounds, he heals their ailments. We can read this in Book of the Prophet Ezekiel. Therefore, Jesus the Good Shepherd defends, knows, & above all loves his sheep. This is why He gives His life for them. Love for his sheep, for each one of us, would lead him to die on the cross. For this is the Father's will – that no one should be lost. Christ's love is not selective; it embraces everyone. He Himself reminds us of this in today's Gospel when he says: "And I have other sheep, that are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they will heed my voice. So there shall be one flock, one shepherd." These words testify to his universal concern: He is everyone's shepherd. Jesus wants everyone to be able to receive the Father's love and encounter God. The Church is called to carry on this mission of Christ. Beyond those who participate in our communities, there is the majority, many people, who do so only at particular moments or never. But this does not mean they are not God's children: the Father entrusts everyone to Jesus the Good Shepherd, and he gave his life for everyone. Jesus defends, knows and loves us, everyone. May Mary Most Holy help us to be the first to welcome and follow the Good Shepherd, to cooperate in the joy of his mission.
