Oggi, cinquanta giorni dopo la Resurrezione del Signore, celebriamo, nella Domenica di Pentecoste, la discesa dello Spirito Santo. Ma oggi è anche il compleanno della Chiesa di tutti noi. Il principale dono della Pasqua è lo Spirito Santo. Egli è lo Spirito Creatore che continuamente crea cose nuove. Le letture di oggi ci parlano di due di queste novità. Nella prima lettura lo Spirito Santo trasforma i discepoli in persone nuove; nel Vangelo crea nei discepoli un cuore nuovo. Nel giorno della Pentecoste lo Spirito è sceso dal cielo sotto forma di " lingue come di fuoco, che si dividevano..." (Atti 2,3-4). Lo Spirito crea varietà e unità, ed in questa maniera da vita ad un popolo nuovo vario ma unito: la Chiesa

Universale. Lo Spirito è il primo dono del Signore Risorto e ci è dato soprattutto per il perdono dei peccati (Gv. 20, 22-23). Lo Spirito che perdona rimette in ordine tutte le cose.

Cincuenta días después de la Resurrección del Señor, celebramos hoy el descenso del Espíritu Santo, el Domingo de Pentecostés. Y hoy es el cumpleaños de nuestra Iglesia. El Espíritu Santo es el Don pascual por excelencia. Él es el Espíritu Creador, que constantemente trae cosas nuevas. Las lecturas de hoy nos muestran dos de esas cosas nuevas. En la primera lectura, el Espíritu Santo hace de los discípulos un pueblo nuevo; en el Evangelio crea en los discípulos un corazón nuevo. En el día de Pentecostés, el Espíritu descendió del cielo en forma de "lenguas divididas, como fuego ..." (Hch. 2,3-4). El Espíritu crea diversidad y unidad, y así forma un pueblo nuevo, diverso y unificado: la Iglesia Universal. El Espíritu es el primer don del Señor Resucitado, y se da sobre todo para el perdón de los pecados (Jn 20, 22-23). El Espíritu del perdón resuelve todo en armonía.

Fifty days after the Resurrection of the Lord, we celebrate today the Descending of the Holy Spirit, the Pentecost Sunday. And today is the Birthday of our Church. The Holy Spirit is the Easter Gift par excellence. He is the Creator Spirit, who constantly brings about new things. Today's readings show us two of those new things. In the first reading, the Holy Spirit makes of the disciples a new people; in the Gospel, He creates in the disciples a new heart. On the day of Pentecost, the Spirit came down from heaven, in the form of "divided tongues, as the fire.." (Acts. 2,3-4). The Spirit creates diversity and unity, and in this way forms a new, diverse and unified people: the Universal Church. The Spirit is the first gift of the Risen Lord, and is given above all for the forgiveness of sins (Jn 20, 22-23). The Spirit of forgiveness resolves everything in harmony.

VOCATION CORNER

The confused and fear-filled apostles were totally changed by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as they became powerful and dynamic proclaimers of their faith in Jesus Christ. God calls priests, religious & deacons to serve Him & to serve others by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. If you think God is calling you to be a Capuchin priest or Brother, please call Br. Louis 1-226-881-0065 or diocesan priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt , Vocations Director 416-968-0997.

Pope Francis' Message

Dear brothers and sisters! I am following with great concern what is happening in the Holy Land. In these days, violent armed clashes between the Gaza Strip and Israel have gained the upper hand, risk degenerating into a spiral of death and destruction. Many people have been injured and many innocent people have died. Among them are even children, and this is terrible and unacceptable. Their death is a sign that they do not want to build the future, but they want to destroy it. Moreover, the growing hatred and violence that is involving various cities in Israel is a serious wound to fraternity and to peaceful coexistence among the citizens, which will be difficult to heal if we do not open immediately to dialogue. I wonder: where will hatred and vengeance lead? Do we really think we can build peace by destroying the other? "In the name of God who has created all human beings equal in rights, duties and dignity, and who has called them to live together as brothers and sisters" (cf. Document on Human Fraternity) I make an appeal to calm and, to who is responsible for it, to put a stop to the din of weapons and to follow the paths of peace, even with the help of the International Community. Let us pray constantly that the Israelis and Palestinians may find the path of dialogue and forgiveness, to be patient builders of peace and justice, opening up, step after step, to a common hope, to a coexistence among brothers and sisters. Let us pray for the victims, in particular for the children; let us pray for peace to the Queen of Peace. Hail Mary....

...the conclusion of the Gospel of Mark – presents us the Risen One's final encounter with the disciples before he ascends to the right hand of the Father. Usually, as we know, farewell scenes are sad. They cause a feeling of loss, of abandonment in those who remain; instead, none of this happens to the disciples. Despite their separation from the Lord, they do not appear grief-stricken, but rather, they are joyful and ready to go out into the world as missionaries. Why are the disciples not sad? Why should we too rejoice at seeing Jesus ascending into heaven? Because the Ascension completes Jesus' mission among us. Indeed, if it is for us that Jesus descended from heaven, it is also for us that he ascends there. After having descended into our humanity and redeeming it – God, the Son of God, descends and becomes man, takes our humanity and redeems it – he now ascends into heaven, taking our flesh with him. He is the first man who enters heaven, because Jesus is man, true man; he is God, true God; our flesh is in heaven and this gives us joy. Now at the right hand of the Father sits a human body, for the first time, the body of Jesus, and in this mystery each of us contemplates our own future destination... Please do not forget to pray for me....
