Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad. Nuestro Dios es un Dios de amor incondicional y abnegado, que extiende a los demás, a través de nosotros, el don de la vida nueva que recibimos en el bautismo. Al reunirnos hoy como una familia, unidos en nuestra fe común, estemos siempre agradecidos por los muchos dones que Dios nos ha otorgado.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. Our God is a God of self-giving, unconditional love, who extends to others, through us, the gift of new life we received in baptism. As we gather today as one family, united in our common faith, let us be ever grateful for the many gifts God has bestowed on us.

Oggi celebriamo la festa della Santissima Trinità. Il nostro Dio è il Dio dell'amore che si dona senza limiti e che estende agli altri, attraverso noi, il dono della nuova vita che noi abbiamo ricevuto nel battesimo. Quando ci troviamo insieme come una famiglia unita da una sola fede, cerchiamo di essere riconoscenti per gli innumerevoli doni che Dio ci ha elargito.

Pope Francis' Message

Today we are celebrating the feast of the Most Holy Trinity, which reminds us of the mystery of one God in three Persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The Trinity is the communion of Divine Persons who are one with the others, one for the others, one in the others: this communion is the life of God, the mystery of the love of the Living God. Jesus revealed this mystery to us. He spoke to us of God as the Father; He spoke to us of the Spirit; and He spoke to us of Himself as the Son of God. Thus He revealed this mystery to us. After He rose, He sent the disciples to evangelize to the peoples, He told them to baptize them "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt 28:19). This command is entrusted by Christ in all ages to the Church, which has inherited the missionary mandate from the Apostles. He also directs it to each one of us who, through the power of Baptism, are part of his Community. Therefore, today's liturgical solemnity, while making us contemplate the amazing mystery from which we come and toward which we are going, renews for us the mission of living in communion with God and living in communion among ourselves on the model of the divine communion. We are called to live not as one without the others, above or against the others, but one with the others, for the others, and in the others. This means to accept and witness in harmony the beauty of the Gospel; experiencing love for one another and for all, sharing joy and suffering, learning to ask and grant forgiveness, appreciating various charisms under the guidance of Pastors. In a word, we have been entrusted with the task of edifying ecclesial communities which increasingly become families, capable of reflecting the splendour of the Trinity and evangelizing not only with the words but with the power of the love of God that lives within us. The Trinity, as I said, is also the ultimate goal toward which our earthly pilgrimage is directed. The journey of Christian life is indeed essentially a "Trinitarian" journey: the Holy Spirit guides us to full knowledge of Christ's teachings, and also reminds us what Jesus taught us. Jesus, in turn, came into the world to make the Father known to us, to guide us to Him, to reconcile us with Him. Everything in Christian life revolves around the Mystery of the Trinity and is fulfilled according to this infinite mystery. Therefore, we seek to always hold high the "tone" of our life, remembering what goal, what glory we exist for, work for, struggle for, suffer for; and what immense reward we are called to. This mystery embraces our entire life and our entire Christian being. We remember it, for example, each time we make the sign of the Cross: in the name of the Father, of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. And now I invite you, all together, and out loud, to make this sign of the Cross: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit!" ...let us entrust ourselves to the Virgin Mary. May she who, more than any other being, knew, worshiped, loved the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity, lead us by the hand; help us to grasp in the world's events....

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Ps 116: 15
