June 6, 2021

Jesus took a meal that celebrated Israel’s freedom from slavery and transformed it into a memorial meal that frees us from slavery to sin. We look forward to the ultimate Reign of God. Paul’s letter to the Hebrews makes clear Jesus did this by substituting his own Blood for that of bulls and goats. The giving of Himself in the form of Bread and Wine really brings God’s Reign to us, because the Lord is truly Present therein. Obviously, we do not yet live in the fullness of the Kingdom, even though we hope in constant expectation of it. However, Jesus is with us at Mass so He can be one with us on life’s journey.

Gesù ha celebrato il pasto per ricordare la liberazione di Israele dalla schiavitù e lo ha trasformato nella mensa che ci ricorda la nostra liberazione dalla schiavitù del peccato. Noi aspettiamo il Regno di Dio alla fine dei tempi. Nella lettera agli Ebrei San Paolo dice chiaramente che Gesù ha potuto farlo offrendo il proprio sangue al posto di quello di tori e capre. Offrendoci se stesso sotto le apparenza di pane e vino ci porta il Regno di Dio perché il Signore è realmente presente lì dentro. Certo non viviamo ancora nella pienezza del Regno ma continuiamo a vivere nell'attesa della sua piena realizzazione. Comunque, Gesù è con noi nella Santa Messa per restare con noi nel viaggio di questa nostra vita.

Jesús tomó una comida que celebraba la liberación de Israel de la esclavitud y la transformó en una comida conmemorativa que nos libera de la esclavitud del pecado. Esperamos el último Reino de Dios. La carta de Pablo a los Hebreos deja en claro que Jesús hizo esto sustituyendo su propia Sangre por la de toros y machos cabríos. El darse a Sí mismo en forma de Pan y Vino realmente nos trae el Reino de Dios, porque el Señor está verdaderamente presente en él. Evidentemente, aún no vivimos en la plenitud del Reino, aunque lo esperamos en constante expectativa. Sin embargo, Jesús está con nosotros en la Misa para que pueda ser uno con nosotros en el camino de la vida.

Pope Francis' Message

On this feast in which we celebrate the ...mystery of one God... the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Three persons, but God is one! The Father is God; the Son is God; the Spirit is God. But they are not three gods: it is one God in three Persons. It is a mystery that Jesus Christ revealed to us: the Holy Trinity. We stop to celebrate this mystery, because the Persons are not adjectives of God, no. They are real, diverse, different Persons; they are not – as that philosopher used to say – 'emanations of God', no, no! They are Persons. There is the Father to whom I pray with the Our Father; there is the Son, who gave me redemption, justification; there is the Holy Spirit who abides in us and inhabits the Church. And this speaks to our heart because we find it encompassed in that expression of Saint John... "God is love." The Father is love; the Son is love; the Holy Spirit is love. ...[He] is not solitude but communion, among the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Because love is essentially a gift of self, and in its original and infinite reality it is the Father who gives himself by generating his Son, who in turn gives himself to the Father, and their mutual love is the Holy Spirit, the bond of their unity. It is not easy to understand, but we can live this mystery, all of us, we can live a great deal. This mystery of the Trinity was revealed to us by Jesus himself. He showed us the face of God as merciful Father; he presented Himself, true man, as the Son of God and Word of the Father, the Saviour who gives his life for us; and he spoke of the Holy Spirit who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Spirit of Truth, Paraclete Spirit – we spoke last Sunday about this word, 'Paraclete' – meaning Consoler and Advocate. And when Jesus appeared to the Apostles after the Resurrection, Jesus invited them to evangelize "all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt 28:19). ...The beauty of the Gospel asks to be lived – unity – and proven in the harmony among us, who are so diverse! And this unity I dare say is essential to Christians: it is not an attitude, a manner of speaking, no; it is essential, because it is the unity that is born from love, from the mercy of God, from the justification of Jesus Christ and from the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts. Mary Most Holy, in her simplicity and humility, reflects the Beauty of the Triune God, because she fully welcomed Jesus into her life. May she sustain our faith; may she make us worshipers of God and servants of our brothers and sisters.... A small group of faithful brought me the translation of the entire Bible in their dialect. One man did it: eight years of work! ...He told me that he read, prayed and translated. I would like to express my thanks for this gesture and also once again to tell you to read the Word of God, so as to find therein the strength of our life... and please do not forget to pray for me.
