June 20, 2021

Dios nos ha dado a cada uno de nosotros gracias de misericordia, amor y perdón para que podamos compartirlos con los demás. El Señor necesita obreros que continúen su misión. Las familias son el semillero de las vocaciones al sacerdocio y la vida religiosa. Incluso aparte de convertirnos en sacerdotes o religiosos, cada uno de nosotros puede dar testimonio de nuestro amor por Dios llevando paz y compasión a nuestro prójimo. Reflexionando sobre las gracias del Evangelio como alternativas a los valores del mundo, ¿estamos listos para ser sus testigos?

God has given to each of us graces of mercy, love and forgiveness that we might share them with others. The Lord needs laborers who will continue his mission. Families are the seedbed for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Even apart from becoming priests or religious each of us can witness to our love for God by bringing peace and compassion to our neighbors. Reflecting on the Gospel graces as alternatives to the values of the world, are we ready to be His witnesses?

Dio ha offerto a ciascuno di noi i doni dell'amore misericordioso e del perdono, che dobbiamo condividere con gli altri. Il Signore cerca operai per continuare la sua missione. Le famiglie sono il vivaio per le vocazioni al sacerdozio ed alla vita religiosa. Anche se non diventiamo preti o religiosi ognuno di noi può testimoniare il proprio amore per Dio portando pace e comprensione nel proprio ambiente. Sapendo che i valori del Vangelo sono in contrasto con le scelte del mondo, siamo pronti ad essere Suoi testimoni?

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY TO ALL OUR DADS ON EARTH & IN HEAVEN!!

We offer St. Joseph's prayer on behalf of each one. Hail Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, To you, God entrusted His only Son. In you, Mary placed her trust. With you, Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too show yourself a father & guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us: grace, mercy & courage, & defend us from every evil!

Pope Francis' Message

...The year 2020 was marked by the massive Covid-19 health crisis, which became a global phenomenon cutting across boundaries, aggravating deeply interrelated crises like those of the climate, food, the economy and migration, and causing great suffering and hardship. I think especially of all those who lost family members or loved ones, and all who lost their jobs. I think too of physicians and nurses, pharmacists, researchers, volunteers, chaplains and the personnel of hospitals and healthcare centres. They have made, and are continuing to make, great sacrifices to be present to the sick, to alleviate their sufferings and to save their lives; indeed, many of them have died in the process. In paying tribute to them, I renew my appeal to political leaders and the private sector to spare no effort to ensure access to Covid-19 vaccines and to the essential technologies needed to care for the sick, the poor and those who are most vulnerable. Sad to say, alongside all these testimonies of love and solidarity, we have also seen a surge in various forms of nationalism, racism and xenophobia, and wars and conflicts that bring only death and destruction in their wake. These and other events that marked humanity's path this past year have taught us how important it is to care for one another and for creation in our efforts to build a more fraternal society. That is why I have chosen as the title of this year's Message, A Culture of Care as a Path to Peace. A culture of care as a way to combat the culture of indifference, waste and confrontation so prevalent in our time....
