VOCATION CORNER

Did not God choose those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom? Count your blessings, then come and help others count theirs too, as a priest, religious or deacon. If you think God is calling you to be a Capuchin priest or Brother, please call Br. Louis Mousseau, OFM Cap. 1-226-881-0065 or diocesan priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

Pope Francis' Message

...Jesus heals a deaf man with a speech impediment. ...he took the deaf man aside, put his finger into the man's ears, & touched his tongue with saliva. Then he looked up to heaven, groaned: "Ephphatha", that is, "Be opened!" In other healings..., Jesus did not do as many things. So why does he do all of this? ... because that person's condition had a symbolic value... That man was unable to speak because he could not hear. To heal the cause, Jesus, in fact, placed his fingers first of all in the man's ears, then his mouth... We all have ears, but very often we are not able to hear. Why? ...there is an interior deafness that we can ask Jesus to touch and heal today. It is interior deafness, which is worse than physical deafness, because it is the deafness of the heart... We run the risk of... not making room for those who need to be heard- children, young people, the elderly, the many who do not really need words and sermons, but to be heard. Let us ask ourselves: how is my capacity to listen? Do I let myself be touched by people's lives? Do I know how to [listen] to those who are close to me? ...first listen, then respond. Think about family life: how many times do we talk without listening first...! Incapable of listening, ...we do not let the other person finish talking.... Starting a dialogue often happens not through words but silence, ...by patiently ... listen to others, hearing about their struggles & what they carry inside. The healing of the heart begins with listening. This is what restores the heart. "But Father, there are boring people who say the same things over & over again..." Listen to them. When they have finished talking, you may speak.... The same is true with the Lord. It is good to inundate Him with requests, but it is better that we first of all listen to him. Jesus requests this. In the Gospel, when they ask him what is the first commandment, he answered: "Hear, O Israel." Then he added the first commandment: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart...(and) your neighbor as yourself..." Do we remember to listen to the Lord? ...we do not find a moment to let a few words of the Gospel resound in us. Jesus is the Word: if we do not stop to listen to Him, He moves on. Saint Augustine's... fear was to let Jesus pass by without hearing Him. But if we dedicate time to the Gospel, we will find the secret for our spiritual health. This is the medicine: every day a little silence & listening, fewer useless words & more of the Word of God. Always with the Gospel in your pocket that can help greatly. ...we hear the words of Jesus addressed to us: "Ephphatha, be opened!" Jesus, I want to open myself to your Word; Jesus, open myself to listening to you; Jesus, heal my heart from being closed, heal my heart from haste, heal my heart from impatience. May the Blessed Virgin Mary, who was open to hearing the Word which became flesh in her, help us every day to listen to her Son in the Gospel and to our brothers and sisters with a docile heart, with a patient heart, and with an attentive heart.
