Pope Francis' Message

The Gospel recounts a brief dialogue between Jesus & John... The Apostles saw a man who was casting out demons in the name of the Lord, but they stopped him because he was not part of their group. Jesus invites them not to hinder those who do good, because they contribute to the fulfillment of God's plan. Then He says: instead of dividing people into good and bad, we are all called to watch be vigilant over our own hearts, or we fall to evil and bring scandal to others. Jesus' words reveal a temptation, and offer an explanation. The temptation is that of closedness. The disciples would like to hinder a good deed simply because it is performed by someone who did not belong to their group. They think they have the "exclusive right over Jesus", and that they are the only ones authorized to work for the Kingdom of God. But they end up feeling that they are themselves privileged and consider others as outsiders, to the extent of becoming hostile towards them... every closure tends in fact us to keep us at a distance from those who do not think like we do, and this – we know – is the root of so many evils in history: of the absolutism that has often generated dictatorships and so much violence towards those who are different. But we need to be vigilant about closure in the Church too. Because the devil, who is the divider – this is what the word "devil" means, the one who divides – always insinuates suspicions to divide and exclude people. At times we too, instead of being humble... and open can give the impression of being the "top of the class" and keeping others at a distance; instead of trying to walk with everyone, we can display show off "I am a believer," "I am Catholic," "I belong to this association, to that one," and the others, poor things, do not. This is a sin... Let us ask for the grace to overcome the temptation to judge and to categorize, and may God preserve us from jealously guarding ourselves in the small group of those who consider themselves good: the priest with his loyal followers, the pastoral workers closed up among themselves so that no one can infiltrate, the movements and associations in their own particular charism, and so on... The Holy Spirit does not want closedness; He wants openness, and welcoming communities where there is a place for everyone. And the Gospel there is Jesus' exhortation: instead of judging everything and everyone, let us be careful of ourselves! ...Jesus urges us not to descend to making pacts with evil, with striking images: "If something in you causes you to sin, cut it off!" If something harms you, cut it off! He does not say, "If something is a reason for scandal, stop, think about it, improve a bit..." No: "Cut it off! Immediately! Jesus is radical in this, demanding, but for our own good, like a good doctor. Every cut, every pruning, is so we can grow better and bear fruit in love. Let us ask, then: what is it in me that is contrary to the Gospel? What does Jesus want me to cut out of my life? Let us pray to Mary Immaculate, that she may help us be welcoming towards others and vigilant over ourselves.
