Thank you for your understanding!

To be happy don't do whatever you like, but like whatever you do. Happiness does not come from having much to live on. It comes from having much to live for.

"Life is like a river that flows with unexpected turns; some may be good, some may be bad. Still, learn to enjoy each turn because these turns will never RE-TURN."

"No one can bring us down from where God has kept us, and no one can promote us to a place God has not designed for us."

FRANCISCAN SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Nov. 07: St. Diego of Alcalá, OFM-born in Spain 1400, joined the Third Order as a youth, then as lay OFM brother, missionary to Canary Islands & Italy, healing ministry. Died 1463, his body is incorruptible.
Nov. 8: Bl. John Duns Scotus, OFM-Born in 1266, received as a brother at 14, brilliant mind, taught at Paris & Oxford, defended spiritual supremacy of papacy, championed Immaculate Conception, died in Cologne 1308.

Pope Francis' Message

...So many of us, when we pray, do not believe that the Lord can work miracles. I am reminded of the story - which I have seen - of the father who was told by the doctors that his nine-year-old daughter would not spend the night; she was in hospital. And he took a bus and travelled seventy kilometres to the Shrine of Our Lady. It was closed and, clinging to the gate, spent the whole night praying: "Lord, save her! Lord, give her life!" He prayed to Our Lady, all night long, crying out to God, crying from his heart. Then in the morning, when he returned to the hospital, he found his wife weeping. And he thought: "She is dead". And his wife said: "No-one understands, no-one understands, the doctors say it's a strange thing, she seems to have healed". The cry of that man who asked for everything was heard by the Lord who had given him everything. This is not a story: I saw this myself, in the other diocese. Do we have this courage in prayer? To the One who can give us everything, let us ask everything, like Bartimaeus, who was a great teacher, a great master of prayer. May Bartimaeus, with his genuine, insistent and courageous faith, be an example for us. And may Our Lady, the prayerful Virgin, teach us to turn to God with all our heart, confident that He listens attentively to every prayer.

...I express my closeness to the thousands of migrants, refugees and others in need of protection... I never forget you; I hear your cries and I pray for you. So many of these men, women and children are subjected to inhuman violence. Once again, I call on the international community to keep its promises to seek common, concrete and lasting solutions for the management of migratory flows...
