Pope Francis' Message

Today's Gospel... takes place inside the Temple of Jerusalem. Jesus looks at what is happening in this most sacred of places; and he sees how the scribes love to walk around to be seen, greeted and revered, and in order to have the places of honour. And Jesus adds that they "devour widows' houses and recite long prayers in order to be seen." At the same time, another scene catches his eyes: a poor widow, precisely one of those exploited..., puts in the Temple treasury "everything she had, her whole living..." in the Treasury. The Gospel presents us with this striking contrast: the rich who give from their surplus wealth to make themselves seen, and a poor woman, who without seeming to, offers every little bit she has. Two symbols of human attitudes. Jesus watches the two scenes. And it is specifically this verb - "to watch" - that sums up his teaching: "we must watch out for" those who live their faith with duplicity, like the scribes, so as not to become like them; whereas we must "watch" the widow, and take her as a model. Let us reflect on this: to watch out for hypocrites and to watch the poor widow... We must watch out for falsehood of the heart, against hypocrisy which is a dangerous illness of the soul! ...To heal this illness, Jesus invites us to watch the poor widow. ...Jesus praises the fact that this widow puts all she has... She has nothing left, but finds her everything in God. She is not afraid of losing the little she has because she trusts in God's abundance, and God's abundance multiplies the joy of those who give. This also makes us think of that other widow, the one of the prophet Elijah, who was about to make a flatbread with the last of her flour and the last of her oil; Elijah says to her: "Feed me" and she gives; and the flour never runs out, it is a miracle. The Lord always, in the face of people's generosity, is more generous. But it is He, not our avarice. This is why Jesus proposes her as a teacher of faith: she does not go to the Temple to clear her conscience, she does not pray to make herself seen, she does not show off her faith, but she gives from her heart generously and freely. The sound of her few coins is more beautiful than the grandiose offerings of the rich, since the [widow] express a life sincerely dedicated to God, a faith that does not live by appearances but by unconditional trust. Let us learn from her: a faith without external frills, but interiorly sincere; a faith composed of humble love for God and for one another. Let us turn to the Virgin Mary, who with a humble and transparent heart made her entire life a gift for God and for his people.
