Lo Spirito Santo è sopra di noi così come è stato sopra Maria or sono due mila anni. È pronto a rendere Gesù vivo per noi. Impegniamoci ogni giorno nella preghiera, nella lettura della Bibbia e a meditare le parole di Gesù. Se lo faremo lo Spirito Santo opererà nei nostri cuori e nelle nostre menti per farci capire la verità su Gesù.

The Holy Spirit is near to us now just as He was to Mary two thousand years ago. He is ready to bring Jesus to life in us. Let us commit ourselves to pray each day, to read the Scripture and to ponder the truths of Jesus. As we do, the Spirit will work in our hearts and minds and reveal the truth of Jesus to us.

El Espíritu Santo está cerca de nosotros ahora, como lo estuvo con María hace dos mil años. Está listo para traer a Jesús a la vida en nosotros. Comprometámonos a orar todos los días, a leer las Escrituras y a reflexionar sobre las verdades de Jesús. Mientras lo hacemos, el Espíritu obrará en nuestros corazones y mentes y nos revelará la verdad de Jesús.

FRANCISCAN SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Life goes by quickly. One day one can feel great, & the next day feel broken. The pandemic teaches us to appreciate the little things. Nothing is permanent except God’s love for us. Let us try to grow in God’s love.

Thank you to all who sent me wishes and gifts. I truly appreciate your gesture.

Baptism of the Lord

Pope's Message

Let us begin the new year entrusting it to Mary, the Mother of God. The Gospel... takes us back once again to the wonder of the crib. The shepherds hasten toward the stable and what do they find? The text says they find, "Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger" (Lk 2:16). Let us pause on this scene and let us imagine Mary who, like a tender and caring mamma, has just laid Jesus in the manger. We can see a gift given to us in that act of laying him down: the Madonna does not keep her Son to herself, but presents him to us. She not only holds him in her arms, but puts him down to invite us to look at him, welcome him, adore him. Behold Mary's maternity: she offers the Son who is born to all of us. Always by giving her Son, showing her Son, never treating her Son as something of her own, no. And so throughout Jesus' life. And in laying him before our eyes, without saying a word, she gives us a wonderful message: God is near, within our reach. He does not come with the power of someone who wants to be feared, but with the frailness of someone who asks to be loved. He does not judge from his throne on high, but looks at us from below, like a brother, rather, like a son. He is born little and in need so that no one would ever again be ashamed. It is precisely when we experience our weakness and our frailness that we can feel God even nearer, because he appeared to us in this way – weak and frail. He is the God-child who is born so as not to exclude anyone. He did this to make us all become brothers and sisters. And so, the new year begins with God who, in the arms of his mother and lying in a manger, gives us courage with tenderness. We need this encouragement. We are still living in uncertain and difficult times due to the pandemic. Many are frightened about the future and burdened by social problems, personal problems, dangers stemming from the ecological crisis, injustices and by global economic imbalances. Looking at Mary with her Son in her arms, I think of young mothers and their children fleeing wars and famine, or waiting in refugee camps. There are so many of them! And contemplating Mary who lays Jesus in the manger, making him available to everyone, let us remember that the world can change and everyone's life can improve only if we make ourselves available to others, without expecting them to begin to do so. If we become craftsmen of fraternity, we will be able to mend the threads of a world torn apart by war and violence....

Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. Ps 116: 15
