In the Pascal Mystery, Jesus accomplished his mission which is why God, the Father, was well pleased to pour forth the Spirit of forgiveness through his Son. The forgiveness of sin is offered through the sacraments of baptism and reconciliation. That authority, to be faithfully conforming to the Spirit of Pentecost, must always be exercised with mercy and love, which are the characteristics of Christ, who suffered, died, rose from the dead and is now eternally exalting in the Holy Spirit.

En el Misterio Pascual, Jesús cumplió su misión. Por eso es que Dios Padre estuvo satisfecho al derramar el Espíritu del perdón a través de su Hijo. El perdón de los pecados son ofrecidos a través de los sacramentos del bautizo y reconciliación. Esta autoridad, debe ser fiel conforme al Espíritu de Pentecostés, siempre tendrá que ser ejercida con misericordia y amor, que son las características de Cristo, quien sufrió, murió, resucitó y ahora para siempre exalta en el Espíritu Santo.

Nella sua vittoria pasquale, Gesù ha portato a compimento la sua missione. Per questo il Padre si compiace di effondere, per mezzo del Figlio, lo Spirito del perdono. Il perdono viene offerto attraverso i sacramenti del battesimo e della riconciliazione. Ma questa autorità, per essere conforme al senso della Pentecoste, deve sempre essere esercitata con misericordia e con amore, che sono le caratteristiche di Cristo, che ha sofferto, è morto e risorto, e che ora esulta eternamente nello Spirito Santo.

If one may ask, what is integrity? It is doing the right thing even when no one is looking.

“One thing to learn from life is that getting upset will never sort out any issue, but getting ‘up’ to ‘set’ things right will help a lot in life.”

“Judge nothing, you’ll be happy. Forgive everything, you be happier. Love everything, you’ll be happiest.”

Listening to Jesus thus becomes the way for us to discover that he knows us. This is the second verb that concerns the good shepherd. He knows his sheep. But this does not only mean that he knows many things about us. To know in the biblical sense also means to love. It means that the Lord, "while he reads our inner beings," loves us, he does not condemn us. If we listen to him, we discover this – that the Lord loves us. The way to discover the Lord's love is to listen to him. Thus, our relationship with him will no longer be impersonal, cold or a front. Jesus is looking for a warm friendship, trust, intimacy. He wants to give us a new and marvelous awareness – that of knowing we are always loved by him and, therefore, that we are never left alone by ourselves. Being with the good shepherd allows us to live the experience what the Psalm speaks about: "Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil; for you are with me." He sustains us above all in our sufferings, in our difficulties, in our crises – which are dark – by going through them us. And so, it is specifically in difficult situations, that we can discover that we are known and loved by the Lord. So, let us ask ourselves: Do I let the Lord know me? Do I make room for him in my life? Do I bring what I am living to him? And what idea do I have of him after the many times I have experienced his closeness, his compassion, his tenderness? That the Lord is near, that the Lord is the good shepherd? Lastly, the third verb: the sheep who hear, and who discover they are known, follow: they listen, they experience they are known by the Lord and they follow the Lord who is their shepherd. What do those who follow Christ do? They go where he goes, along the same path, in the same direction. They go to seek those who are lost, are interested in those who are far-off, take to heart the situation of those who suffer, know how to weep with those who weep, they reach out their hands to their neighbour, placing him or her on their shoulders. And me? Do I let Jesus love me, and by allowing him to love me, do I pass from loving him to imitating him? May the Holy Virgin help us listen to Christ, know him always more and follow him on the way of service. Hearing him, knowing him, following him.
