SECULAR FRANCISCANS are Catholic lay persons, who seek to joyfully LIVE THE GOSPEL in the footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi. Are you being called to witness your love of Christ in your daily life? Come, experience JOY with the members of St. Felix of Cantalice Fraternity every 4th Sunday of the month at the 12:00 noon Mass followed by a Fraternal Gathering until 3:30pm. "We're called to heal wounds, unite what has fallen apart & to bring home those who have lost their way." St. Francis of Assisi. Please email: stfelixso@gmail.com for more information.

Eight days later, they were all still there together. Jesus returns, with the deepest respect: instead of reproaching them, he places himself at their disposal. Thomas was not satisfied with the words of the other ten; he did not need a story, but an encounter with his Lord. Who comes for the first time but then returns, who instead of imposing himself, he proposes himself; instead of withdrawing, he exposes himself to Thomas' hands: Put your finger here; reach out your hand and put it in my side. The resurrection didn't close the wounds, it didn't heal the lips of the wounds. Because death on the cross is not a simple accident to overcome:

those wounds are the glory of God, the highest point of love, and so they will remain eternally open. On that flesh. love wrote his story with the alphabet of wounds, now indelible as love itself.

Ocho días después, todavía estaban todos juntos. Jesús vuelve, con el más profundo respeto: en lugar de reprocharles, se pone a su disposición. Tomás no quedó satisfecho con las palabras de los otros diez; no necesitaba un cuento, sino un encuentro con su Señor. Que llega por primera vez pero luego vuelve, que en lugar de imponerse, se propone; en lugar de retirarse, se expone a las manos de Tomás: Pon tu dedo aquí; extiende tu mano y ponla en mi costado. La resurrección no cerró los agujeros de los clavos, no sanó los labios de las heridas. Porque la muerte en la cruz no es un simple accidente a superar: esas heridas son la gloria de Dios, el punto más alto del amor, y por eso permanecerán eternamente abiertas. En esa carne el amor ha escrito su historia con el alfabeto de las heridas, ahora imborrable como el amor mismo.

Otto giorni dopo, erano ancora lì tutti insieme. Gesù ritorna, nel più profondo rispetto: invece di rimproverarli, si mette a disposizione delle loro mani. Tommaso non si era accontentato delle parole degli altri dieci; non di un racconto aveva bisogno, ma di un incontro con il suo Signore. Che viene una prima volta ma poi ritorna, che invece di imporsi, si propone; invece di ritrarsi, si espone alle mani di Tommaso: Metti qui il tuo dito; tendi la tua mano e mettila nel mio fianco. La risurrezione non ha richiuso i fori dei chiodi, non ha rimarginato le labbra delle ferite. Perché la morte di croce non è un semplice incidente da superare: quelle ferite sono la gloria di Dio, il punto più alto dell'amore, e allora resteranno eternamente aperte. Su quella carne l'amore ha scritto il suo racconto con l'alfabeto delle ferite, indelebili ormai come l'amore stesso.
