Michael: vocations@capuchinscanada.com or capuchinscanada.com

SECULAR FRANCISCANS are Catholic lay persons, who seek to joyfully LIVE THE GOSPEL in the footsteps of St. Francis of Assisi. Are you being called to witness your love of Christ in your daily life? Come, experience JOY with the members of St. Felix of Cantalice Fraternity every 4th Sunday of the month at the 12:00 noon Mass followed by a Fraternal Gathering until 3:30pm. "We're called to heal wounds, unite what has fallen apart & to bring home those who have lost their way." St. Francis of Assisi. Please email: stfelixso@gmail.com for more information.

In the Gospel reading, during Jesus' discourse at the Last Supper, He identified Himself to His disciples as the "True Vine," and all who believed in Him as the "branches" united to Him. Jesus used the metaphor of the vine and its branches to emphasize the importance of divine grace in uniting the life of Christians to the glorified life of God the Son, the Redeemer-Messiah, who is the source of divine life and wisdom. For those of us who believe in Jesus as our Lord and Savior, God joins us to Him in the same way that the branches of a plant are connected to the main stem or trunk. If we have faith in Jesus as our Lord and Saviour, we abide in Him, and He abides in us. We become sons and daughters of God reborn by the power of the Holy Spirit through the Sacrament of Baptism, united to Christ and to each other. As the branches draw life and grow from the common trunk, so our souls receive life from Christ as we grow spiritually nourished by His Word and by the Eucharist in the arms of Mother Church. In the assembly of the faithful, we share our love and sing hymns to praise God who dwells within us, and he will grant us "if you are united to me and my teachings abide in you, ask whatever you wish and it will be granted to you".

Nella lettura del Vangelo, durante il discorso di Gesù nell'Ultima Cena, Egli si è presentato ai suoi discepoli come la "Vera Vite" e tutti coloro che credevano in Lui come i "tralci" uniti a Lui. Gesù ha usato la metafora della vite e dei tralci per sottolineare l'importanza della grazia divina nell'unire la vita dei cristiani alla vita glorificata di Dio Figlio, il Redentore-Messia, che è la fonte della vita e della sapienza divine. Per coloro che credono in Gesù come nostro Signore e Salvatore, Dio ci unisce a Lui nello stesso modo in cui i rami di una pianta sono collegati al fusto principale o al tronco. Se abbiamo fede in Gesù come nostro Signore e Salvatore, rimaniamo in Lui e Lui rimane in noi. Diventiamo figli e figlie di Dio rinati dalla potenza dello Spirito Santo attraverso il sacramento del Battesimo, uniti a Cristo e gli uni agli altri. Come i rami traggono vita e crescono dal tronco comune, così le nostre anime ricevono vita da Cristo mentre cresciamo spiritualmente nutriti dalla sua Parola e dall'Eucaristia tra le braccia della Madre Chiesa. Nell'assemblea dei fedeli, condividiamo il nostro amore e cantiamo inni per lodare Dio che abita in noi, e che ci concederà "se siete uniti a me e i miei insegnamenti rimangono in voi, chiedete quello che volete e vi sarà concesso".

En la lectura del Evangelio, durante el discurso de Jesús en la Última Cena, Él se identificó a sí mismo ante sus discípulos como la "Vid Verdadera", y a todos los que creían en Él como los "ramas" unidos a Él. Jesús usó la metáfora de la vid y sus sarmientos para enfatizar la importancia de la gracia divina para unir la vida de los cristianos a la vida glorificada de Dios el Hijo, el Redentor-Mesías, quien es la fuente de la vida y la sabiduría divina. Para aquellos de nosotros que creemos en Jesús como nuestro Señor y Salvador, Dios nos une a Él de la misma manera que las ramas de una planta están conectadas al tallo o tronco principal. Si tenemos fe en Jesús como nuestro Señor y Salvador, permanecemos en Él, y Él permanece en nosotros. Nos convertimos en hijos e hijas de Dios renacidos por el poder del Espíritu Santo a través del Sacramento del Bautismo, unidos a Cristo y entre nosotros. Así como las ramas extraen vida y crecen del tronco comun, así nuestras almas reciben vida de Cristo a medida que crecemos espiritualmente alimentados por Su Palabra y por la Eucaristía en los brazos de la Madre Iglesia. En la asamblea de los fieles, compartimos nuestro amor y cantamos himnos para alabar a Dios que habita en nosotros, y el nos concedera "si estan Unidos a mi y mis enseñanzas permanen en ustedes, pidan todo lo que quieran y seles concedera".
