- Weekly Reflection -

Salvation Requires Conformity

Jesus contrasts two types of religious behavior. The first is that of the pretentious scribes who strut and use religion to make a point. Jesus takes up this attitude and condemns it. The second attitude is that of the poor widow who, in the eyes of men, performs an act that is derisory but, for her, fraught with consequences in that she deprives herself of what she absolutely needs. Jesus praises this attitude and points to it as an example to his disciples for its impressive authenticity. It is not what men notice that has value in God's eyes, for God does not judge by appearance but looks at the heart (1 Sam 16:7). Jesus wants us to look into ourselves. Salvation is not about success, much less about appearances. Salvation requires man to conform actions to his convictions.

La salvación exige conformidad

Jesús contrapone dos tipos de comportamiento religioso. El primero es el de los escribas pretenciosos que se pavonean y utilizan la religión para sacar tajada. Jesús asume esta actitud y la condena. La segunda actitud, es la de la viuda pobre que, a los ojos de los hombres, realiza un acto irrisorio, pero, para ella, cargado de consecuencias al privarse de lo que necesita absolutamente. Jesús alaba esta actitud y la señala como ejemplo a sus discípulos por su impresionante autenticidad. No es lo que los hombres notan lo que tiene valor a los ojos de Dios, porque Dios no juzga por las apariencias, sino que mira el corazón (1 Sam 16,7). Jesús quiere que miremos dentro de nosotros mismos. La salvación no tiene que ver con el éxito, y mucho menos con las apariencias. La salvación exige que el hombre conforme sus acciones a sus convicciones.

La salvezza esige conformità

Gesù contrappone due tipi di comportamento religioso. Il primo è quello degli scribi pretenziosi che si pavoneggiano ed usano la religione per farsi valere. Gesù riprende questo atteggiamento e lo condanna. Il secondo comportamento è quello della vedova povera che, agli occhi degli uomini, compie un gesto irrisorio, ma, per lei, carico di conseguenze, in quanto si priva di ciò di cui ha assolutamente bisogno. Gesù loda questo atteggiamento e lo indica come esempio ai suoi discepoli per la sua impressionante autenticità. Non è quanto gli uomini notano che ha valore agli occhi di Dio, perché Dio non giudica dall'apparenza, ma guarda il cuore (1Sam 16,7). Gesù vuole che guardiamo in noi stessi. La salvezza non è una questione di successo, e ancor meno di parvenze. La salvezza esige che l'uomo conformi le azioni alle sue convinzioni.
